

Return Policy

GlamBeauty Extensions - Return Policy

We appreciate your trust in GlamBeauty Extensions and strive to ensure the highest quality in our products and services. Here's a detailed outline of our return policy:

1. ALL SALES ARE FINAL

2. Shipping Responsibility:

- GlamBeauty is NOT responsible for any lost, stolen, or mishandled packages during the delivery process.
- We advise customers to track their orders and plan for safe arrivals, especially if they won't be available to receive the package personally.

3. Damaged Parcels:

- Should you receive a package that appears damaged or opened, please take a photograph of the package before opening it. While GlamBeauty is not responsible for mishandled parcels, having this documentation may aid you in discussions with the carrier.

We understand that every customer expects a seamless shopping experience, and while we aim to offer the utmost satisfaction, it's important to be clear on our policies to avoid any misunderstandings.

For any concerns or clarifications, do not hesitate to text our hair line. We appreciate your understanding and look forward to serving your beauty needs.
